THE [illegible] BILL.

It Will Be Passed at This Session.

NEW YORK, April 9. A special from Washington says that a tariff bill will be passed by the Fifty-first Congress, and it will be passed at the present session, notwithstanding all statements to the contrary put forth by Democratic and free trade organs for political purposes. It will be passed, too, after thorough debate, even if this should require Congress to remain in session through the greater part of the summer and away into September. From present indications it seems that the latter part of June will see the whole question disposed of. The bill as framed from the Committee on Ways and Means will be reported in a few days.

CANADA.

The Modus Vivendi to be Extended.

OTTAWA, Ont., April 9. The Canadian Cabinet has decided to extend the modus vivendi for the coming fishing season. The amicable manner in which the fishery laws of Canada were carried out last year, owing to the general acceptance of the modus vivendi arrangement by New England fishermen and the prospect of an early resumption of negotiations in reference to the settlement of the Atlantic fishery dispute, have induced the government to take this step.

THE TOBACCO TAX.

A Story of a Combination by Southerners.

NEW YORK, April 9. A Washington special says that Speaker Reed having shown his determination not to recognize any member of the minority for the purpose of moving a repeal of the tobacco tax a movement is taking shape among Southern Republican Congressmen to force the issue when the McKinley bill comes before the House. Two Republicans from Virginia and three from North Carolina are pledged to this measure and will stand by it regardless of party pressure. One of the most prominent of these members said last night:

"We propose to solidify the Republican members from Virginia, North Carolina, Tennessee and Kentucky in favor of this course. With this strength added to the Democratic vote of the House we should be able to amend the McKinley bill by the addition of a clause repealing the tobacco tax, which is so obnoxious to our people."

If your blood is bad, your liver and kidneys out of order, if you are constipated and have headache and an unsightly complexion, don't fail to call on any druggist to-day for a free sample of this great remedy. LOCAL MATTERS.

Mr. E. B. [illegible] left yesterday on the Boston boat for a trip to Philadelphia, where he will visit for about [illegible].

There will be a Sabbath School concert at the Congregational church in Brewer, next Sunday evening, and a very interesting programme is being prepared. Among other music, three quartettes will sing selections.

The last sociable to be given this season by the Young Folks' Sociable Society of the Congregational church, Brewer, will occur this evening. There will be a picnic supper, and a very attractive programme has been arranged.

There was an alarm of fire from box 44 at 11.45 yesterday forenoon, but although the fire companies were promptly on hand they were not needed as it was only a chimney burning out. One stream was, however, turned on, but only for a moment.

The Katahdin was twenty minutes in getting away from the wharf yesterday, owing to the sluggishness of the current, which is usually very swift at this season, but will not carry the head of the boat around and it is necessary to work around with the wheels.

A flock of wild geese was heard by one of our citizens about five o'clock yesterday morning, seemingly very low down and near the roofs of the houses. They appeared, from the noise, they made, to be bewildered by the snow-storm and were scattered over a large territory, as could be told by the sounds.

THE EVANGELICAL ALLIANCE. This week the visitors of the Evangelical Alliance will begin the work of visiting every house within the city limits receiving a call, without regard to denomination. The work has already been described in THE WHIG and doubtless the ladies who do the visiting will be pleasantly received and their work made as pleasant and easy for them as possible.

Mr. Arthur Noyes, of this city, is very proud of his ten months old bay filly, sired by the handsome young stallion Mambrino Touchstone, a grandson of Dr. Herr's Mambrino Patchen, owned by F. A. Bishop, of Hermon. The filly stands fourteen hands high with great substance, is perfectly proportioned and is very stylish and handsome, and shows fine trotting action. The Dam was a white mare, fifteen hands, breeding untraced.

The people who get there at just the last moment and sometimes don't get there until afterwards, are beginning to get around with the coming, or rather the going, of the boats. A man with a grip in one hand and the other full of carpenter's tools, appeared on the wharf yesterday after the Katahdin had cast off and wanted passage in her. Under ordinary circumstances he would have been left, but he finally managed to get aboard while the boat swung in toward the wharf, and his grip and then each of the tools, separately, were tossed to him.

[illegible] STATE COLLEGE [illegible]. At a meeting of the Reading Room Association Tuesday afternoon the following officers were elected: President, E. [illegible] Hall, '91; Vice-President, Geo. F. [illegible], '92; Secretary, H. O. [illegible], '93; Treasurer, Charles F. [illegible], '92; Chairman of the Executive Committee, C. D. [illegible], '90. —The Senior Civils have had their lesson assigned them. Part are to design a system of water works for one of the neighboring villages, and part are to work upon an iron railroad bridge.

Tuesday evening there was a very enjoyable time at Harlow's Hall in Brewer, about twenty-five couples being present, the gentlemen being the guests of the young ladies, who had arranged for a jolly good time, and all the boys acknowledge that it was fully up to their anticipations. In the early part of the evening the company indulged in "progressive old-maid," after which a delicious supper and ice cream were served. After all had been satisfied they had a "rainbow party," and the gentleman who did the best work in hemming an apron got a prize. The ladies were very pretty and appropriate, and when the evening had merged into night and the clocks told the hour in very few strokes, they broke up with many thanks for one of the most enjoyable times they ever attended.

There was a brutal exhibition of pugilism on Cedar street yesterday afternoon, when the drivers of a milk cart and a light wagon, bound out of the city, [illegible] themselves that they stopped their respective horses and jumped out [illegible] the middle of the road to "have it out" as they said. Before any one could interfere one of them had received a blow on the nose which relieved his heated brain from an over amount of blood which gave him a chance to cool off and when both were threatened with the police they released their hold on each other and proceeding their carts drove on, talking at each other steadily as long as they could be seen and if they got home without their glory [illegible], it is a wonder, as they were both pretty ugly.

He has built him a house for the business within the past year. It is clapboarded and painted and has three rooms; the middle room contains the arch with the Vermont Evaporator, and at the left of this is a store room for sap, and at the right is a room with cook stove, cupboard, shelves, and what is needed for housekeeping while engaged in the business. Aroostook farmers who are getting $2.50 a barrel for potatoes must believe that farming in Maine pays. Ambrose Post, of Fort Fairfield, lately sold nine hundred barrels for $2,070; as much as some good farms cost.

A Chinaman who has a laundry in Portland has been missing since Saturday night. His place was open all day Monday with no one to attend the customers, and his friends fear foul play.

At a meeting of the Portland city government Monday evening, the petition for the Peak's Island Railroad was granted.

Portland is to have a "merchant's week" during the week of the concerts by the Emma Abbott Opera Co. and Gilmore's Band beginning April 21st. It will be a combined musical and mercantile festival. The Boston & Maine and Grand Trunk will sell half rate tickets from all stations within fifty miles from Portland. The Rumford Falls & Buckfield, and the Knox & Lincoln offer half rates from all stations.

Franklin.

A quaint story, illustrating the value of tact, is told by a Farmington Chronicle correspondent about Master Tommy Anderson, an old-time pedagogue. Once he taught a school in Farmington where the boys had driven out several teachers. He found that the chief conspirator was a good-looking grown-up girl, bright, saucy and proud. The schoolmaster wore his hair in a cue as was the fashion in those days. When he was "doing a sum," with his head down, she tossed his cue back and forth as if it were a toy, much to the amusement of the scholars. Uncle Tommy said nothing but kept up quite a thinking. He knew if he called out the girl and punished her, the big boys would rise and carry him out. So he adopted unusual tactics in conducting his campaign. He found a lot of long hair hanging up in a barn. From this he selected and smoothed out a bunch resembling a cue, and tied it up nicely with a ribbon. Taking this to the school room early the next morning, he suspended it from the peg where the girl always hung her cloak and hood, then he commanded to set copies as usual. When she came in and spied the curious contrivance, she looked surprised and puzzled. Quoth Master Tommy in a mild tone of voice, "Miss, I have brought that bunch of hair for you to use as a plaything instead of my cue." The proud-spirited girl was humiliated before the whole school and could not help crying. Uncle Tommy had won the victory, by stratagem rather than by force of arms and had no further difficulty with the scholars.

Lewis E. Pease, formerly writing master in the Saco schools, has received a call to the Universalist church, Marblehead, Mass. He will graduate in June from a theological school.

Cape Elizabeth, at its annual town meeting, voted for the introduction of Sebago water, the vote being 311 for to 305 against the measure. Before the vote was taken it was announced that certain residents of the town were present whose names were not on the check list. The moderator after consulting with the leaders of both parties present in the hall, and finding—so it was reported—that no objection was made, dictated to the meeting, and permitted these residents to vote. A week after the meeting, the opposition sent a protest to the board of selectmen, forbidding the consummation of the proposed twelve years' contract with the Portland Water Company on the ground that the vote was illegal. They also claim that half of the voters did not vote at the annual meeting and that another vote would entirely change the situation on the water question. Another claim made is that owing to the illegality of the vote, Cape Elizabeth now has no town officers. With a view to straightening out this tangle, probably, the selectmen have called another meeting for April 14th to vote on the water question.

Report of the Water Board.

To the City Council:

The following report of the Water Board for the year ending March, 1890, is respectfully submitted:

The works have been run throughout the year, without accident or trouble, and all of the time, except a few hours, by water.

The engineer reports a large increase in the amount of water pumped during the year, the amount largely exceeding that of any year since the works were started.

The following table shows the number of gallons pumped each year:

For year ending March,	1879,	260,544,120
"	1880,	240,090,360
"	1881,	370,651,782
"	1882,	345,061,800
"	1883,	416,737,113
"	1884,	498,284,210
"	1885,	564,041,465
"	1886,	645,725,965
"	1887,	645,060,960
"	1888,	684,058,480
"	1889,	674,797,056
"	1890,	912,229,984

The works generally are in their usual condition. The room occupied by the rotary pump, being needed for the use of the electric light machinery, it has been removed and is now for sale.

The sluice has, during the year, been thoroughly repaired, and new crib work placed on the shore in rear of the pumping station.

The dam and its connections are now in good order. The boom piers above the dam will need some attention during the coming year.

A large amount of pipe of different sizes has been laid during the year. [illegible]

Two new hydrants have been placed [illegible] the extreme outskirts of the city; 192 new services have been added during the year, and some discontinued, leaving the total number now 2,795.

The additional revenue on the additions of the year is $1,820 00.

The water rates have been promptly paid, but a small amount remaining uncollected.

The total cash collections for water used in the city is $28,137.38. The Brewer water company have paid for six months ending October 1st, $1,095.34.

"ELECTRIC LIGHT."

The electric street lighting being run in connection with the water department, and being by ordinance placed under the control of the Water Board, it is perhaps proper that this report should show what has been done.

The Brush Electric Light Company received the contract, and the work was commenced early in April last.

The work was quickly and thoroughly done, and on June 19 the streets were lighted for the first time by 140 electric lamps of 2,000 candle power. Since that time the lights have been in use every night, to the complete satisfaction, we believe, of all our citizens.

The works consist of three dynamos, two of 65 and one of 45 lights capacity, with all the necessary shafts, belts etc., to run either by water or steam.

While it is the intention and expectation to run the lights by water power, to provide against accidents, a 150 horse power engine has been purchased and placed in position.

The old boilers have been removed and sold, and two new steel boilers of the latest pattern, with all the modern improvements, placed in their stead.

The water-power to carry the electric light machinery, has been proved to be ample. It is regulated without difficulty.

Respectfully submitted,

O. F. BRAGG, Mayor.

Report of Engineer of Water Works.

Bangor, March, 1890.

To the Bangor Water Board:

Gentlemen—You will find by my report for the year ending March, 1890, that there was more water pumped from the Water Works during the past year than in any previous year.

The amount is as follows:

March,	1889,	61,451,100
April,	"	59,173,750
May,	"	64,635,310
June,	"	61,352,370
July,	"	72,57,850
August,	"	77,908,480
September,	"	73,575,300
October,	"	74,815,524
November,	"	91,300,000
December,	"	95,865,840
January,	1890,	95,283,200
February,	"	98,391,360
Pumped in 1889-1890,		912,229,984
" 1888-1889,		674,797,056
Increase,		237,432,928

The pumps have been run by water except for a few hours each on December 8, 10, 14 and 15, 1889, and on January 12, 1890, when steam was used, as anchor ice prevented the wheels from running.

The pressure at the works has been increased from 110 to 115, at the request of citizens living on Thomas Hill, but when the tide is very high, and not much water running over the dam, it is impossible to keep at that point. When the pumps were first started 90 pounds pressure gave better service than 110 does now.

The machinery is in as good condition as it has been for many years, but will need some repairs the coming year.

Soon after the City Government concluded to put an electric plant in the pump house, I had orders to prepare for foundations for three dynamos, and also to take out the rotary pump and build foundations for intermediate shaft bearings.

April 6, work was commenced by taking up the floor of the pump house where foundations had been located. The rotary was taken out April 9. Masons employed by the Brush Company began the foundations of the dynamos on April 22, which were completed in May. The steam and exhaust pipes of the old engine had to be changed as they were in the way of dynamo foundations. May 24th, men from Hinckley and Egery's shop commenced to put up shafting overhead, and June 7th the dynamos were in place and started.

On June 17th, lamps were tested on two of the circuits, one on the night of June 19th all of the dynamos and lamps (140 in number) were used for the first time. The dynamos have been run by water power all of the time except from December 1st to January 1st, when, on account of the breaking of a shaft, the Armington and Sims engine was used.

The City Government having voted to purchase a 150-horse power engine and boiler to run the electric lights when they could not run by water, the Water Board decided to remove both of the old boilers in the boiler room and to put in a new boiler of 150-horse power and connect it with the one to be used by the electric light plant.

Accordingly a contract was made with the Jarvis Engineering Company, of Boston, to furnish an Armington and Sims engine with 15½x15-inch cylinder and of a capacity of 150-horse power, with eighty pounds boiler pressure, and also two steel boilers of 150-horse power each, built by Barrowdoff and set with the Jarvis setting. The new boilers were in place September 18th. They were tested at 150 pounds pressure each, and were insured for one year in the American Steam Boiler Insurance Company of New York. The boilers are piped so that either boiler or engine can be used singly or all together.

The Armington and Sims engine was set on foundations furnished by the city and started (light) on November 30th. On December 1st the six-inch shaft connecting the old water wheels with the electric plant twisted off while running the old pumps, and that night the new engine was used to run the dynamos. We continued to use the engine till January 1st, when a new seven-inch shaft to take the place of the broken six-inch shaft having been made, we connected the dynamos with the water wheels and have run by water since.

The new engine and boilers give good satisfaction and are capable of doing all that they were warranted to do.

Respectfully,
[illegible] W. PATTON,
Engineer Bangor Water Works.

Two new hydrants have been set, as follows: One at the corner of Elm and Milford streets, and one at the corner of Essex and Milford; eight have been taken out and replaced by longer ones, in order to conform to the grade of the street; two of the Mathews hydrants have been re-placed by those of the Holly pattern, and two have been broken by teams running into them; fifteen new boxes have been put in to replace those decayed, and twelve have received new valves.

The number of services as per last report was 2,610, to which has been added the past year 192; but seven have been discontinued, caused by the buildings being removed, making the total number at present, 2,795. The yearly increased revenue from the additions made the past year is $1,820 00. Fifty services have been taken out in consequence of being filled with rust, and new pipes put in to replace them; fifty-two have been shut off for non payment of tax, but all have been turned on again.

In consequence of the re-building of the bridge across the stream, this department has been put to an extra expense not contemplated when the appropriations were made in the spring. The work of protecting the pipe when the work was being done, and the expense of boxing it, as well as the several leaks caused by the earth settling, have contributed to quite a large sum. The main between the two middle abutments has been protected by stone walls on each side and covered with flag stones. The rest of the pipe was boxed with a double box of one and one-fourth spruce boards.

Respectfully submitted,
F. E. SPARKS, Inspector.

W. BAKER & CO.'S

Breakfast Cocoa

Is absolutely pure and it is soluble.

No Chemicals

are used in its preparation. It has more than three times the strength of Cocoa mixed with Starch, Arrowroot or Sugar, and is therefore far more economical, costing less than one cent a cup. It is delicious, nourishing, strengthening, easily digested, and admirably adapted for invalids as well as for persons in health.
